

THE CHANUTE TIMES.

$1.00 per Year.

Friday, June 28, 1898—CHANUTE KANSAS—Friday, June 28, 1898.

VOL. XXVI, No. 40.

A Tale of Two Counties

As Told by the Times' Correspondents in Neosho and Wilson Counties.

To CORRESPONDENTS:—Write on but one side of the paper; head your items each week with the name of your locality; get items here by Tuesday when possible, but in no case later than Wednesday; sign your name to items, not to be used in paper, but as a matter of good faith; when your supplies run out, notify this office.

Erie.

J. E. Bell, clerk of District court, and C. S. Denison were looking after legal matters in Thayer Monday.

Judge L. Stillwell and J. L. Denison went to Iola Monday, where court convened.

Judging from the number of marriage licenses that judge Mills has peddled out, and the scarcity of divorces in the District Court, marriage is no more a failure in Neosho county.

Prof. A. P. Allen, of this city, lectured to the normalites yesterday on the "Geology of Kansas."

Up to the present, 138 teachers have enrolled in the most successful normal Neosho-co. has had for years. Prof. Stanley seems to be an ideal instructor and a favorite with all.

Miss Anna Herod entertains the ex-students of the State Normal at her home Monday night.

W. R. Cline, county attorney, J. E. Rell, clerk of District Court and John Lock, Register of Deeds attended the Democratic Congressional convention at Chanute yesterday.

Drs. M. E. Lake and C. W. Balliane are delivering a course of lectures to the physiology class at normal.

Jean Hurst & Co. received five car loads of ice from Kansas City last week.

Hon. D. C. Ambrose, editor of the Fayetteville Republican of Fayetteville, Ark., is visiting in this city.

Although the notice is rather brief, Erie has made arrangements to celebrate the Fourth. Active preparations are being made to unfurl "Old Glory" as proudly as it ever was before, and make the eagle scream until he struts every vocal cord in his throat. Judge L. Stillwell has been made chairman of the day. Addresses will be made by Senator Hugh P. Farrelly, of Chanute, and Hon. J. W. Iden, of Parsons. Immediately after devoting every eatable in sight, the following toasts will be given:—for toast master L. D. Haynes, "The War as I Understand it," J. L. Denison; "The Kansas Editor," C. E. Allison; "Our Volunteers," C. A. Budd; "Fisherman's Luck," J. Q. Stratton; "What is It?" T. F. Rager; Omaha Exposition, J. M. Allen; "The New Woman," W. R. Cline; "The New Man," Belle L. Harbaugh. Every one has taken an interest in assisting in the celebration and old Erie is preparing to do herself justice.

NORMAL NOTES.

Prof. Dyche lectures Wednesday. Jno. O'Conner, of Earlton, called Monday.

The history class under Prof. Frazier has been discontinued.

Prof. McClure has two large classes in vocal music.

Prof. Harvey Brown, of Hanna, Wyoming, called Tuesday.

Fifty subscriptions to the Western School Journal were raised or renewed and accordingly, Jno. McDonald delivered his lecture, "The Scotch Child" to a large audience at the Methodist church Thursday night.

Mrs. Harbaugh was over Friday distributing sample copies of the Record.

This week closes the normal and the patrons are well pleased with the instruction and with what they have gained.

Examination for certificates will be held Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Ed Brewster is now located near Phoenix Arizona, on a ranch.
W. C. Strickland and Chas. Nelson drove to Erie one day last week.
Lillian Coleman has gone down to the Texas oil fields where his father is.
Abe Mathias has harvested his wheat crop and it appears to be a fine crop.
Thayer is much cooler lately. Bulard started his ice wagon last Saturday.
Mrs. C. H. Mills and children and Earl Brewster drove to Chanute yesterday.
George Lowrance is in the Army Hospital at San Francisco with the measles.
A great deal of Sperry's wheat down in Shiloh-tp will not be worth cutting.
The average age of the volunteers who have enlisted in the war, is twenty-four.
George Wright has supplied the required bond and was released from jail yesterday.
Mrs. Vellie Buchanan came down from Earlton Saturday and Gene came down Sunday.
Miss Nina Bartl is down from Chanute getting up a music class. Miss Bartl is a niece of Mrs. Roadman.
Miss Edith Green expects to attend summer school at Chicago and take work under the famous Col. Parker.
Commencement exercises will be held at Newland school house next Saturday evening, June 23. Miss Elsie Newland is the only graduate.
Charley Record is getting along very well at the asylum. He was much worse the last two days he was at home than he has been since.
Rev. Fred L. Sams, who used to call himself an evangelist and preached at several points west of town a few years ago, has become tired of the work and has hung out his shingle as a doctor in Lawrence.

W. A. Cook returned from the harvest fields out west last Saturday. He says there are more men out there than the farmers know what to do with and half of them can't get work. Wes Stall succeeded in getting work for himself and team at $3.00 per day. According to the Cherryvale Republican, Mrs. Henry Dowell, living near Morehead was bitten by a mad dog lately and went to Cherryvale to a mad stone. The stone was applied and adhered three times, forty-five minutes each time.—News, June 21.

J. W. Furgison and A. H. Renheart made a business trip to Erie Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Roads, from near Galesburg, were trading in Thayer Tuesday afternoon.
Politics are very quiet now in this neck of the woods. There is some talk about the township ticket, Homer The one that seems to strike the most popular chord and we think the strongest yet mentioned is, trustee G. R. Vosburg, treasurer, J. W. Beck, clerk, O. B. Lukens. This, if nominated ought to be a winner.
Committeeman Sperry is getting ready to conduct an active campaign this fall in Chetopa-tp. in the interest of the Republican state, county and township tickets. John is a rustler when he gets started out.

Chas. Evans has quite a little photograph gallery of his own. Chas. is clerk of the school board and the applicants, both male and female present in sending Cherley their photos with their applications.
John Dye made a business trip to Chanute Wednesday morning.
Fred Carter is working for L. A. Stall this week.
John Whittaker, with his threshing outfit leave this week for Oklahoma where he will begin work at once.

Kimball.

Wednesday, June 22.—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rall returned home Wednesday after being gone for the past three weeks on a camping tour.
Quite a number of our people attend Children's exercises at Savonsburg Sunday a. m. and at Stark at night.
Misses Cluma Maper, Bessie Kimme, of Moran, and Eva Romsper, of Savonsburg returned home Sunday after a week's visit with friends here.
Willie Smith spent Sunday with Ben Roberts.
Misses Flora and Anna Reese spent Sunday afternoon with Mary and Blanche Myres. Visgal Howell completed Dennis Simmons' barn last week.
Mrs. Amy Smith and three children were visiting at W. F. and J. M. Crapsons Tuesday and Thursday.
Bert and Myrt McDonald Willie and Chester Smith, Geo. Reece and Ben Robert were pulling cuckoo burrs for Mr. Moore last week.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. McLeister, a fine girl on last Wednesday.

Miss Geneva McDonald spent Sunday with Miss Myrtle Reed.
Joe Myres shipped two car loads of cattle Monday night.
Alf Shilder returned Monday night from Kansas City where he has been staying for the past month visiting with his son, Ed, who is very low with blood poison, but was able to come down with his father.

Are you dull and stupid? Do you miss the snap vim and energy that was once yours? You need a few doses of that great system regulator, PACKLEY ASH BERRIES. For reviving strength and energy, increasing the capacity of the body for work, it is a remedy of the highest order. Sold by J. L. Sewall.

Valley.

Monday June, 20, '98.—To wet to plow.
Jap Beamer and Mattie Philips were married last Sunday at the home of the bride's parents.
J. W. Toomey has fenced in a fine hog lot with wire.
Edd Eckley is sick at present.
Tom Copley is talking of moving to Parsons next spring.
W. H. Nation was at Topeka last week and attended the pop state convention. Mr. Nation, like plenty of other pops in this vicinity is not much of a Leedy man.
The republicans of this vicinity are well pleased with the state and county ticket.

Cottage Corner.

J. W. Phillips and family, who have been visiting J. W. Arthur and other relatives in this vicinity, for a couple of weeks, left for their home at Maltland Mo. Tuesday.
D. D. McCormick was down in the vicinity of Urbana on business, Monday.

Johnny Cooper is an o. k. farmer and stock raiser.

Mrs. J. H. Mahaffey and Mrs. Henry Frank planned and executed a surprise party on their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Arthur Monday night, that was a corker. The guests to the number of about forty played old fashioned games and told ghost stories and had a good time generally. Quite a number of town folks came out and mingled with the people of the corners among whom was Rev. Barrett and family. It was about midnight when the guests departed. All present enjoyed themselves hugely and say they are going back about water melon time.

Mrs. H. H. Konkright has the finest garden in the neighborhood.
J. E. Plummer says he is going to paint his house soon.
Caleb Reeves is not so well as usual this week.

Big Creek.

Tuesday June, 21, '98.—Miss Lizzie Dennis is on the sick list.
Farmers are laying by corn.
John Kelley shipped hogs Monday.
Ed Townsend spent Sunday at home.
A number of our young folks are preparing to spend the fourth at Humboldt.
("Quite a number attended the ice cream supper at the Chapel last Wednesday night.)—Big Creek items in the Blade. We hope they all enjoyed themselves as ye TIMES correspondent has not got that surly yet; he was unable to be present and can not give full particulars.
Elmer Brown is working for F. E. Maynard.
Owing to the rain Wednesday night the ice cream supper at the Chapel was given Thursday night. The net proceeds were $7.05.

Center Grove.

Soon be time to celebrate.
Some of the farmers are laying their corn by, this week.
Will Geisler and sister drove down to Coffeyville this week to visit relatives and friends of that place.
W. D. Jewell was in Topeka attending the populist state convention, last week.
Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Yount were the guest of W. J. Osburn's Sunday.
Soon be time to reap the golden grain.
We notice C. W. Hall has been improving his property by painting. A good move.
Quite a number from Center Grove attended the funeral of Mrs. George Alwood, at Leanna, last Thursday afternoon.
Miss Nellie Jewell is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Guiane, of Chanute, the first of the week.
Miss Alice Harner is staying at Mr. Alwards, at present.
